Conditions Very Good In Southern Part of England

Reports Anthony Gowan of Clairmont District on Return from Old Land in Interview with Tribune Reporter

Anthony Gowan, well-known farmer of the Clairmont district, who returned from the Old Land on Friday, interviewed by The Tribune reporter, stated that there was a marked improvement in Britain as compared to nine years ago, when he last visited that country.

Mr. Gowan visited his mother, living in Edinburgh, Greenock and Glasgow were among the other points visited in Scotland. Later he took a trip into England, spending several days in London.

In answer to a question as to conditions on the Clyde, Mr. Gowan replied that there seemed to be a lot of boats started, but work was not being rushed by any means.

Taking both Scotland and England as a whole, conditions were noticeably better in England, especially in the south. Conditions were not good in the north of England, due to the depressed condition of the shipbuilding and the cotton industries.

While on the Clyde Mr. Gowan had a good view of the battleship ship, the "Queen Mary," on which two shifts of men were employed. It is a magnificent ship, was the way Mr. Gowan described this last visit in ocean liners.

Compared with the conditions which obtained in the old land nine years ago, he said, the standard of living, so far as the common people were concerned, had been generally raised. The masses are wearing better clothing and, speaking generally, were living in better houses. "In fact, a general leveling process has been gradually going on for a long time," added Mr. Gowan.

Big houses were either being torn down or turned into apartment houses or hotels, the reason being that the owners cannot afford to keep them in the present times.

The new houses, in Scotland and England, were built to a standard, said Mr. Gowan, who then went on to say that there was a strong tendency all over the world towards standardization. This was especially true in styles of clothing.

Through the effect of the radio and talkies, the influence of the fashion in Moscow was wearing the same styles as women at Hollywood, or in any Canadian city.

Reporter: "What are the predictions with regard to the British elections, which will be held within two years?"

Mr. Gowan: "I am very hard to figure out at this time. It all depends on the events which will happen in the meantime. The Labour party will, undoubtedly be a strong contender for power. If Labor does not win, the party will undoubtedly strengthen its position."

Mr. Gowan observed that there is a keen interest taken in Canada and Canadian affairs and if a visitor was known to come from Canada, he was made welcome everywhere.

There were few crossing either ways, and as to each passenger, he was certainly received service de luxe," he observed.

Mr. Gowan went over via New York and returned via Halifax. He arrived in Scotland two days later, and was met by his mother. He was in excellent health, and was very happy to be home.

Mr. Gowan was very much pleased with the flowers being beginning to bloom. The winter in Canada was exceptionally mild with plenty of rain.

Mr. Gowan spent several days at Montreal and Winnipeg. "There was practically no snow in Ontario and very little in Quebec," he said. Winnipeg and Edmonton very little snow was to be seen, he said.

Hermit Lake Club Bring In Fine Type Clydesdale Horse

E. L. Gillespie, setting for a Hermit Lake stock club, shipped in to Grande Prairie on Monday a pure-bred Clydesdale, "Gladys," being four years of age. The horse, which weighs 1,750 pounds, attracted a great deal of attention on Grande Prairie's principal street.

This animal, which should prove a real asset to this country, is a dark-brown with four white feet and narrow stripe down the face and has typical Clydesdale legs.

Mr. Gillespie gave it as his opinion that the animal should weigh well over a ton when matured. At present the horse is exceptionally well conditioned on his age, having a wonderful build.

The horse was purchased from A. J. Stewart of the High River district, well-known Clydesdale breeder.

R. Ireland's Horses Bring Top Prices At Lacombe Sale

Rex Ireland of Clairmont recently shipped out to the Lacombe sale 14 head of horses which were, in the judgment of the local horsemen, as fine a lot as ever left the Peace River. What made these horses especially attractive was that the lot was divided into two matched teams.

Re Ireland, who was in Grande Prairie on Monday, having returned from the south on Friday, in conversation with The Tribune reporter stated that he only put two of the horses in the sale, the balance being purchased privately and shipped to Boston, Mass. These brought $300 a team.

Re Ireland's Lacombe correspondence had the following to say regarding the shipment from the north:

"Ireland of Clairmont, Peace River, brought to Lacombe a carload of the best horses that have been seen in central Alberta for years. An Irishman, who is a horseman, has horses on their arrival, for which he paid well over $100 a head."

At the Lacombe sale, Ireland said that the average paid per head for horses was $60, green and unbroken horses being sold for $100 and over, while broken horses were sold for the average, Good horses, well broken, brought $100 a head.

Rex Ireland, who is one of the best known horse dealers in the north, has a large number of horses in his stable. Among this lot are two pure-blooded stallions, one of which is a stallion named "King's Choice," an animal which is worth $100 a head.

There were 640 horses in the Lacombe sale.

Popular Couple of Flying Shot Dist. Were Married

(By The Tribune's Correspondent) On Thursday noon, March 28, at the United Church manse, Grande Prairie, the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Carl of Flying Shot was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Francis O. Nelson of Lethbridge, Scotland, by the Rev. Nelson T. Chappel.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mcintosh, was dressed in a dress of salmon pink crepe trimmed with matching lace. The bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Carl, was dressed in a dress of white crepe.

The bride was given away by her mother, Mrs. J. L. Mcintosh, who was assisted by Mr. Allen Edsall, who attended the groom.

The ceremony of the wedding party drove to the home of the bride, where Mr. and Mrs. W. Stevens served a delicious wedding breakfast to some forty invited guests. The bride cut a very fine wedding cake, which was appropriately named "The Flying Shot."

Afterwards music and fun were indulged in by the bride's orchestra, represented by "Bill" Remple and Mel McGowan. The bride and groom stepped up the enjoyment would be putting it very mildly. Everyone was in the mood for a good time.

The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mcintosh, who were the best man and maid of honor. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mcintosh, who were the best man and maid of honor.

Spring!

I look upon my calendar. I see that April's here— It is the only sign I see That Spring is surely near.

Men tell me that it is just around the corner of the road. I see it stop and start to hear The croaking of a toad.

Six months have I journeyed now. My hope is nearly gone. I cannot help but pause to think That calendar is wrong!

It is not the calendar that is wrong, It is the weather that is wrong. It is not the weather that is wrong, It is the calendar that is wrong.

Local Boy Scouts To Meet Lord Baden Powell

At a meeting of the association sponsoring the Boy Scouts it was decided to send out two representatives to meet Lord Baden Powell during the Scout Camp at Edmonton commencing April 26.

Gerald Card and Jack Edwards were chosen to represent the local organization, and the third boy will be chosen should the financial position at that time warrant sending him.

Boy Scout work in this district has gained great headway and last year the local organization was the largest in the province. As this is a very beneficial work and goes a long way to taking the boys out of the streets, it should be promoted as much as possible, and it is hoped that the local organization will be able to do this.

CHAMPION OF BLOCK KNOCKOUTS CHALLENGER

DAWSON CREEK, April 2.—Again the local champion, Charlie Reid, succeeded in defending his title when he laid Lester Reid of Rose Prairie on the canvas for the count on Friday night. It did not last long, a heavy right to the ribs early in the second round doing the trick.

The man from the north was no match for Charlie. Although only seven pounds difference in weight, the challenger lacked height and reach and was unable to get away from his opponent and it was evident from the start what the result was likely to be.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Exciting Elections
EDMONTON, Mar. 25.—The most exciting election the Students' Union of the University of Alberta has ever experienced is now a thing of the past.

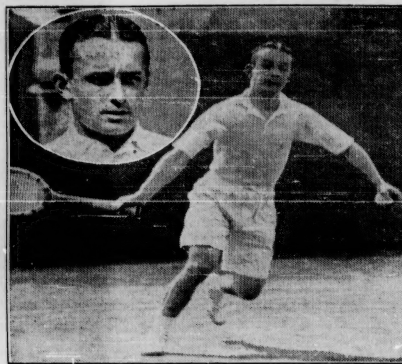

Candidates have been nominated, speeches made, campaigns conducted, votes cast, and a capable executive elected.

But in the procession of those electoral stages have occurred some of the greatest pranks that have been known on the campus since the initiation was abolished in 1923. Perhaps the greatest factor in promotion of bonhomie was the candidature of Ted Bishop, president of the campus Women's Haters' Club for presidency of the Students' Union. President Bishop's opposition feared that his alleged indifference for femininity would result in increasing popularity. In the different one, and this apparently is what happened. With more than one-third of the voters co-siding, the president-elect must have received a goodly portion of their votes to achieve a majority, as the opposing candidate certainly received a goodly portion of the male ballots.
